II. PUBLIC RELATIONS

A. PRE-MEET RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Gather and disseminate information involving the meet to the news media and general public. Information to include:
 - a. general meet information (location, date, time, ticket prices);
 - b. meet records, favored teams/individuals, defending champions;
 - c. meet director's and public relations chairperson's contact information.
2. Electronically contact participating schools to find out whom they wish to have results transmitted to in their local area.
3. Establish local media connections early. Create list of local media names, e-mail, telephone numbers, fax telephone numbers and backup contacts. Contact UPI and AP people to see if they will send results over the wire if you electronically send them.
4. Send out pre-meet press release approximately one month before event. Try to include local color to entice media coverage.
5. Send out release one week before the meet. Use the three days before the meet to telephone each media contact to remind them about the meet. Tell them that you are calling to make sure that they have received the press release and to answer any questions they may have. You may also ask them who they are planning to send to cover the meet so you can have a press pass ready for the individual.

B. DURING MEET:

1. Set up press area for media to have table and “home base” during the meet:
 - a. have a sign-in sheet for the press;
 - b. make up a press badge for identification and give to each press representative;
 - c. provide press kit which should include:
 - 1) rules and regulations of meet, i.e., no flash pictures at start of race;
 - 2) schedule of events with starting times;
 - 3) records;
 - 4) seedings;
 - 5) background information on top swimmers/coaches;
 - 6) copy of program;
 - 7) day two: results of prelims;
 - 8) some information about swimming itself might be helpful to the press covering the meet.
2. Be knowledgeable about ALL rules pertaining to meet, i.e., whether press photographers are allowed on deck, etc.
3. Work out arrangements with score table so you get multiple copies of results as soon as they are available. Many media people will only have small window to cover meet. It is important that they have information as soon as it is available.
4. Have several people (former area swimmers recently graduated from college) to assist media people. Remember, in many cases the media people do not know a butterfly from a breaststroke. These former swimmers are naturals, as they are mature enough to handle the press and have a personal knowledge of swimming.
5. Get access to internet service, telephone and/or fax machine to distribute results.
6. Provide result packets for coaches or inform coaches where results will be electronically posted.
7. Prepare in advance a press statement to be distributed to any Media Personnel that covers unforeseen events such as accident, injury, bomb threat, etc.
